

Videographer Paid Internship Summer 2019 - Arts Intern through the Studio Institute For rising Cleveland junior or senior with significant financial need

The Sculpture Center will hire an applicant who is highly proficient in documentary videography to make short videos featuring past exhibiting sculptors, The Sculpture Center, its founders, and key community supporters. The intern needs to be well organized, goal oriented, and able to develop a plan of action. The intern must supply h/her own high quality videography and sound recording equipment and editing software. The intern must be self-confident, outgoing, and comfortable reaching out to strangers through email, phone calls, and face-to-face conversations. Preference will be given to applicants who have a strong interest in the arts, rather than commercial videography.

The intern will work directly with the Executive Director + Chief Curator.

Responsibilities will include the following:

- Make est. four short videos (2-3 minutes each) about past exhibiting sculptors and about The Sculpture Center, our founders, and community supporters that can be put on our website and used for marketing and grant applications and reports.
- Assist with the installation and deinstallation of the summer group exhibition, After the Pedestal, the 12th exhibition of Small Sculpture from the Region, and fully understand the works of art in the exhibition in order to market it to visitors and in video.
- Working some Saturday afternoons as the galleries supervisor, with time off during the week.

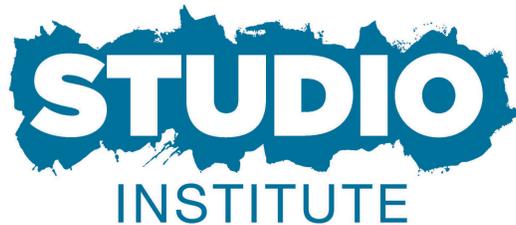

Internships last 9 weeks (June 10 - August 9), and interns work 28 hours a week. Interns will be paid $15.00 per hour for a total of $3,780. In addition to working at The Sculpture Center, Arts Interns must participate in the education component of the program, which is spread out across nine program days throughout the summer. These days will be used to visit other Cleveland institutions, where the Interns will have the opportunity to learn about other jobs in the field. These days will also be used to complete program assignments. Students are paid for this by the Studio Institute.

Eligibility for this internship.

1. Students must be enrolled full time as an undergraduate junior or senior in the Fall following the summer program. This means when you apply, you should be a rising junior or senior, or finishing senior year the following Fall.
2. Students must meet the residency requirements: Attend college in Cleveland, or live within Cleveland or the boundary established by the Inner Ring Suburbs.
3. Students must have an Expected Family Contribution, of less than $5000. This number is on your FAFSA form, to see what it looks like -- click here.

How to Apply:

To begin the application for this internship at The Sculpture Center you must first apply to the Studio Institute which will verify your eligibility. Please go to the Studio Institute Institute's website to learn more. If you have any questions contact Executive Director Ann Albano of The Sculpture Center (aalbano at sculpturecenter.org). This is the third year that The Sculpture Center has been part of the Arts Interns program. This is an amazing opportunity for a videography student interested in contemporary art.

about The Sculpture Center

The Sculpture Center (sculpturecenter.org), founded by Cleveland artist David E. Davis, is a not-for-profit arts organization with a mission unique to this country of supporting the careers of emerging sculptors, installation artists, and other practitioners of expanded media in our greater region and encouraging the preservation of Ohio public outdoor sculpture. It presents from 8-10 solo exhibitions a year and one group exhibition, either guest curated or juried. On its website is the Ohio Outdoor Sculpture (OOS), a database which provides images, historical data, and condition information on over 1,500 outdoor public sculptures in Ohio.

We broadly define contemporary sculpture as individual pieces in all media, installation, expanded media, performance, and relational aesthetics. Our region is Ohio, adjacent states, western NY and PA, and Ontario, Canada.
