

Now Hiring: Part-Time Violin Instructor for Children/Adults in Cleveland/Slavic Village

Broadway School of Music & the Arts is a neighborhood institute providing music and art training to children and adults at an affordable price. Our classes take place on weekday afternoons between 2:00 -- 7:30 pm. If you have something close to the following combination of background and skills, we would be happy to review your resume and talk with you further:

- Music degree from accredited school -- Bachelor's degree (or higher) in music performance or music education
- Performance-Level Musicianship -- Strong, solid command of your instrument
- Minimum two years of on-the-job experience teaching violin to private students
- Group violin class teaching experience is a plus
- Expertise/teaching ability on viola and cello also a plus
- Comfortable and adept working with children within the grade 1 through 12 age range and also adults
- Experience teaching in inner city environments or working with underserved populations is a huge plus
- Very skilled at using positive motivation to inspire students -- holding them to high standards of performance and practice habits but making the learning experience as enjoyable as possible
- Commitment to Greater Cleveland -- Ideally planning to stay here for the next two years
- Hours: Though some parents request 60-minute lessons for their children, our normal time frame is 30 minutes.
- Schedule: We offer lessons Monday through Thursday from 2:00 or 3:00 pm through 7:30 pm. Your own schedule would depend on student demand, which can increase over time, and there could be some flexibility on your preference which days to teach (including perhaps a Saturday morning)

-- Compensation: $26 -- $28/hour depending on experience and educational credentials, with incremental raises over time.

To apply, kindly email your cover letter, resume and weekday afternoon and Saturday hours of availability to meredith@broadwayschool.org
